

Bless Your Art

Downtown Enfield Spring Art Show
Saturday, May 13, 11 am to 3 pm

- Who can enter? Artists wishing to exhibit and sell original works of art such as paintings, sculpture, multiple originals (serigraphs, lithographs, and limited editions), photography and mixed media. This is a juried exhibition, please include a photograph or .jpg of your work when submitting your application.
- How much does it cost? $0
- Booth size is approximately 10x10.
- Where will the vendors set up? Vendors will set up along Whitfield St. in downtown Enfield. In the case of rain we will be setting up inside the historic Episcopal Church of the Advent at the corner of South Dennis Street and Batchelor Street.
- What is the purpose of the event? The Downtown Enfield Restoration and Preservation Association (DERP) is showcasing Enfield's downtown as a backdrop for local and regional artists. This year we will be having the Enfield Fishing Creek Paddle (from 8:30AM to noon) and a prayer service (4:00 PM) at the Historic Episcopal Church of the Advent on the same day!!
- How does this benefit ME or MY business? All proceeds from the sale of your art will be yours. DERP will NOT take a percentage of your profits.
- Will food be provided? Artists can purchase lunch from JENNIE'S BEANS AND BUNS. Jennie's is within walking distance from the Bless Your Art set up along Whitfield St.
- Artist opportunity. Raleigh artist, Eric McRay will be joining us this year and will be teaching an art class. Eric is an experienced art instructor, ready to help you "brush" up on your skills or expand your artistic practice.
